

Monmouth University to Host Gala International Festival

Freehold, NJ Newspaper - Entertainment

WEST LONG BRANCH, NJ - Monmouth University announced today that it will hold an International Festival on April 10, at Wilson Hall from 7:30pm - 11:00pm. Tickets are $3 for Monmouth University students and $5 for outside guests and can be purchased at the door.

Tickets for the event include a buffet dinner which includes cuisine's from around the world including: India, China, South America, Africa, and Europe. Entertainment will also be provided at the event such as Indian and Brazilian drums, an international fashion show, as well as other ethnic dances. This gala cultural event has a special featured act: Soraya, International Egyptian belly dance star from the Trump Taj Mahal Casino.

CULTURAL WEBSITES TO LEARN MORE:

www.bellydancebysoraya.com

and

www.soraya.us

